Subject: Thanks!

Hello, Emma! It's still cold here in New York. Thank you very much for sending me a nice birthday card! I put it on the wall of my room. The picture of cherry blossoms is really beautiful and whole my family liked it, especially* my grandmother. Twenty years ago, she moved from America to Japan, and started to work as an English teacher. She loved cherry blossoms there. Now my family is planning to visit Japan, so please tell me about the best season in Japan.

Subject: Japanese seasons

Hi, Katie. I'm glad to know your family liked the card. In Japan, cherry blossoms are a sign of spring, and everyone is happy to see their arrival. People enjoy having 'Ohanami' parties under the trees. So for visiting Japan, spring is really nice. My favorite season is autumn. It's cool and dry at that time. The color of the autumn leaves are beautiful. Japanese summer is hot, but we have a lot of traditional local festivals. I like them. Sorry, Katie, I can't decide one! I hope to see you and your family when you visit Japan!

Volunteer Activity

Risa is 14 years old. She lives in a town near Kobe. Last summer she enjoyed watching the Rio De Janeiro Olympic games on TV. She got excited about the great performances of the participants*. Also she saw many volunteers. They were working on the course of the marathon, or near the main stadium to help the participants and visitors from all over the world. She got interested in volunteer activity.

In Risa's town, there is a marathon race once a year. This year, she decided to work as a volunteer at the race. She joined a seminar to learn about volunteering. She learned many things about how to give a hand to people. One teacher, Mr. Tanaka said to Risa, "To work for others is not easy, but it teaches you many important things. It also gives you a chance to change yourself."

On the day of the race, she handed the maps of the course to runners as a volunteer in the morning. Later in the afternoon, she welcomed the runners at the finish line. Many runners said to her, "Thank you!" with smiles. This made her really happy. At the end of the day, she was very tired, but her heart was filled with warm feelings.
