The Olympic Games

The Olympic Games were held in Rio de Janeiro last summer. Many countries from all over the world attended the Olympics, and every athlete tried very hard and showed us wonderful performances.

The Olympic games began over 2700 years ago in Olympia, *Greece. The Greeks loved sports and the Olympic Games were the biggest event.

Every four years around 50,000 people came from all over Greece to join and watch the games. During the Olympics, the *wars in the areas were stopped, so people could travel safely to Olympia.

There was only a running race when the Olympics began. Over the years, boxing, wrestling, horse racing, long jump and *javelin were added. But these events were different from the ones today.

There were no gold, silver, and bronze medals. Winners were given a *crown of olive leaves. They were the heroes of their cities and were welcomed by people back home.

At that time only young men could take part in the games. They had to be free men and speak Greek. Women could watch the games but could not play the games. *Married women could not even watch the games.

*Greece : ギリシャ *war : 戦争 *javelin : 「やり投げ」
*crown 王冠 *married 結婚している

Subject : How are you?

Hello, Yoko,

You were absent from school today. I heard you have the *flu and cannot come to school for five days. I am so sad because we could not eat lunch and play volleyball after school together. How do you feel now? I will e-mail you every day and tell you the news about the classes and our volleyball team.

On December 10th, we will have to give a group presentation about our hometown in social studies class. I will prepare the presentation for you tomorrow.

I played volleyball with our teammates today. Our coach could not come to club today, but we could practice without any problems.

Take care! I will e-mail you tomorrow.

Yumi
