Slow Reading Club

Are you busy every day? Shut off your smartphones and iPads, and enjoy reading! Slow Reading Club gives you time to read better with deeper concentration*. This fall, we offer* special reading programs for more enjoyable reading. Come and join us on Saturday evenings!

How do we do that?

- Read at a slower pace. Do not rush to turn pages.
- Read carefully. Underline the parts you like.
Make memos when you think of new and different ideas.
- Share your reading. After reading, exchange* your ideas with club members.

What do we read?

- You can start with short books or read your favorites.
- If you can't choose one, you don't need to buy one.
Our leader will choose some for you.

Comments from the members

- Reading text messages on SNS makes me tired every day. The time for slow reading gives me time to think deeply. (an engineer)
- I'm totally refreshed after reading slowly! (a high school student)

 Subject: New year!

Happy new year! I hope you are having a wonderful holiday.
 Look at the first photo I sent you with this e-mail. This is a photo I took at the entrance gate of a shrine* near my house yesterday. The people in the photo are: my sister, my grandfather, my grandmother, my mother and my father. Tadashi, my brother, was not there. He caught a cold and stayed home that day. After the visit, my family enjoyed special food at home. Please look at the next photo. We were eating special food called osechi. I like the red shrimp and yellow sweet potatoes.
 My winter holiday will be over soon. When does your new term* at school start?

Your friend,
 Maki

 Subject: Thank you!

Bonne année*! I'm happy to hear from you. Yes, I'm having a wonderful time with my family over the Christmas and New Year's holidays. My school starts tomorrow. This term, I am going to try advanced* Japanese lessons, so I'm very excited.
 The two photos of your New Year are really nice! I really liked the kimono your sister was wearing in the first photo. It is so beautiful! The flower patterns* and the sash* are so colorful.
 The food in the boxes in the next photo is colorful, too. I hope the red and yellow will bring your family happiness in the coming year!

Love,
 Christine

An Important Member

I'm Yuka, a junior high school student in Japan. Last year, I did a homestay in Hamilton, New Zealand through my school homestay program. I stayed with a family of four.

On my first evening, after I put my suitcase in my room, I asked all of them to come to the living room. When everyone was there, I took out several gifts from Japan that I had brought for them. I was a little nervous about whether* they would like the gifts I chose.

"These are for Sarah and Kevin," I said as I gave two small packages to the 6-year-old twins. They opened the gifts and shouted, "This is my favorite!" "Thanks, Yuka!" I knew they loved Japanese anime, because I exchanged* e-mails with my host mother, Cathy, beforehand*. Both of them looked very happy with the small pen cases with popular anime characters.

"This is for you, Cathy." I handed the second package to her. It was a Japanese cookbook. "The food is beautiful! I want to try some of the recipes* while* you are here!" she said, turning the pages of the book.

Next was a folding fan, a sensu, for my host father, David. "Oh, what is this for?" He didn't know how to use it, so I showed him. "Amazing*!" He opened and closed the fan many times, and said, "Thank you very much!" Everyone looked happy with their gifts. I was also happy to see their smiles.

Then Harry, a cute small dog came and sat by me. He was looking at me and wagging his tail. I suddenly realized an important thing. He was waiting for his gift! I hugged him and said, "Oh, Harry, I have nothing to give you!" He looked sad. I realized that pets are important family members in New Zealand, and they know they are.

*whether : 〜かどうか *exchange : 〜を交換する *beforehand : 前もって

- (1) Where did they gather?
- 1 In her room.
 - 2 In the living room.
 - 3 In the dining room.
 - 4 In the kitchen.
- (2) Why did Yuka know the twins like anime?
- 1 Because she knew about popular anime.
 - 2 Because she sent a card to the family.
 - 3 Because she asked her host mother about their favorite anime in an e-mail.
 - 4 Because she met the twins before.
- (3) What was the gift for her host mother?
- 1 A pen case.
 - 2 A book.
 - 3 A dish.
 - 4 A fan.
- (4) What trouble did Yuka have in the end?
- 1 She didn't like Harry.
 - 2 She didn't give food to Harry.
 - 3 She didn't know the dog's name.
 - 4 She didn't bring a gift for Harry.
